

National recruitment firm Life After Law launches in Quebec

Toronto (Ontario) May 24, 2013 - The national recruitment firm Life After Law is pleased to announce the official launch of their Montreal office as well as the engagement of Judy Kremer. With offices in Toronto and Vancouver, this marks the third office for Life After Law in just over a decade since its founding. The Montreal office will operate under the name Recrutement Life After Law Inc. with Judy Kremer serving as its National Manager. Prior to joining Life After Law, Judy worked as a senior recruiting consultant for an executive and legal search firm in Montreal after having practised law at Fasken Martineau LLP.

“We are delighted to have Judy join our firm. Judy’s background in Law, Psychology, Public Affairs and Management makes her uniquely positioned to assist a diverse clientele,” said Randi Bean, President & Founder of Life After Law. “Establishing an office in Montreal is a natural next step for us. As companies globalize, the need for professionals with jurisdictional expertise is of increasing interest to international companies. Our clients appreciate the national scope of our experience and our notable roster of candidates.”

About Life After Law

Life After Law is Canada's only national recruitment firm dedicated to placing highly skilled and marketable legal professionals in careers outside of traditional law firm practice. Created over a decade ago by former practicing lawyer Randi Bean, Life After Law was developed in recognition of an untapped niche. By addressing the overwhelming demand of the legal community for assistance in the pursuit of careers outside traditional law firm practice, and marrying it with the ever growing need of industry to unearth new sources of exceptional talent, Life After Law has created new synergies between the business world and the legal community by providing a valuable resource...a well of untapped talent.

With a head office in Toronto, and a roster of candidates and clients across Canada and the U.S., Life After Law serves the national and international recruitment needs of a wide array of clients, from small and medium businesses to large multinational corporations, in a broad range of industries, including telecommunications, technology, insurance, finance, travel, life sciences, retail, real estate and aerospace.
